

To thrive in life, you need Intimacy with God

Matthew 22:34-40

But when the Pharisees heard that he had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together. And one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question to test him. "Teacher, which is the great commandment in the Law?" And he said to him, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments depend all the Law and the Prophets." - Matthew 22:34-40 (ESV)

The Pharisees challenged Jesus in a theological debate. One of the law experts asked Jesus about the Greatest commandment (v. 34-36). The Lord Jesus responded that they must first love the Lord their God with all their heart, soul, and mind. The second is that they must love their neighbor as themselves. (vv. 37-40).

In our passage, Jesus is reminding us about our intimacy with Him. To have intimacy with Him, we must be passionate in loving God, prioritize loving God, and pursue His will of loving our neighbors.

So, how can we have intimacy with God?

1. We must be passionate about Him (v. 37).
2. We must prioritize Him (v. 38).
3. We must pursue His will (vv. 39-40).
